

paper with the long hours of proofreading, Editing, and lay out until like 5 A.M. then going to classes that morning. They worked themselves sick just for the Student Association. This may sound like I am belly-aching but I am mad. You, the student, don't care enough about the Sword to work on it and make it what it could be.

In conclusion, I feel that a newspaper should be the responsibility of Communications and English Majors or Minors with the help of Business Majors or Minors.

To my staff thanks for all your work and sorry it had to go to waste.

Have a Great and Fun year.

Well, because you don't care, I am sorry to say but the Sword is being put to rest. Now my staff and I can get on with our lives and do the job that we are here for, to learn, not to put out a paper every two weeks.
