

Graduation News:

by Theresa Monette

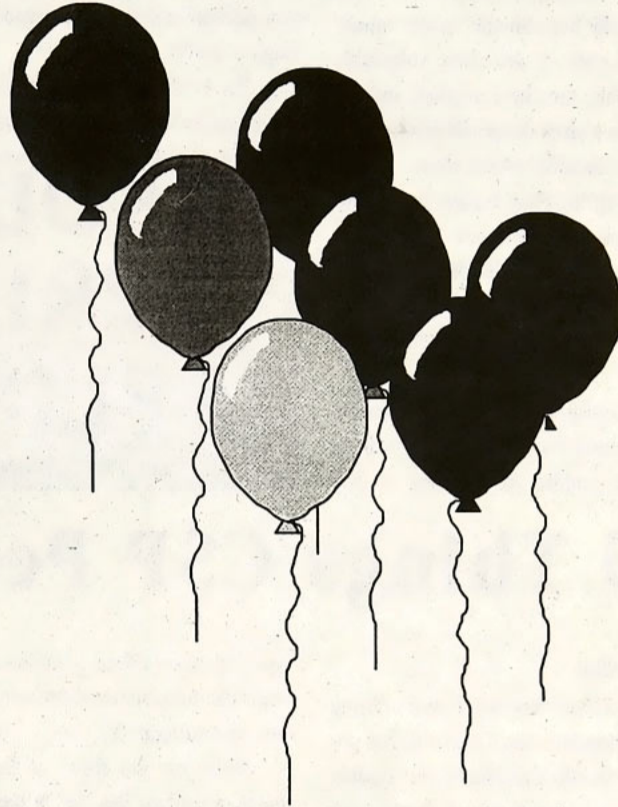

Congratulations to Jennifer Drees, traditional student, and Brad Lasch, CSAL 152, for being selected as student commencement speakers for 1996. Other distinguished honorees for the ceremony include: Dr. Lane Seitz, President of the Minnesota South District of the LCMS, who will be receiving an honorary doctorate; Rev. Norman Sincebaugh, President of the North Dakota District of the LCMS, who will also be receiving an honorary doctorate; Dr. Gary Meyer and Dr. Loma Meyer who will be receiving the Aeterna Moliri Award; and Dr. Geraldine Carter who will be receiving the Alumni Distinguished Service Award. Congratulations again to these distinguished Concordia representatives and to the graduating class of 1996.

The Sword would like to thank everyone who contributed to this year's newspaper experience. We hope we served you all well as historians of the school. We would like to wish all our graduates the best of luck in all future endeavors. May the love and grace of our Father guide you throughout your lives. Peace be with you. †
