

Comets To Play Goslings, Cougars, Falcons, Dec. 7, 8, 9

Here come the Comets!! Make way for our champions!!

With such a send-off from their fans, the Comets on December 7 will entrain for Watertown, Wisconsin, where they will meet the Northwestern Goslings for the first game of a three-game trip. Although the Comets have never played the Goslings, they are assured of meeting a very strong team.

After spending the night in Watertown, the team will continue on to River Forest, Illinois, where on Dec. 8, they will encounter the Cougars of Concordia Teacher's College.

As usual, the Cougars will be tough opponents, and the presence of Ude Schwich, a former St. Paul Concordian, will make it difficult for the Comets to win.

And then—Milwaukee!!

On Saturday, Dec. 9, the Comets will engage the Falcons at Milwaukee. Although the Comets will play their hearts out for each game, they especially want to beat Milwaukee to even up last year's defeat. The incredibly fast Falcons, however, will prove a mighty foe! Although Irv Oswald is the only returning Falcon from last year's first five, the Milwaukee team has never been short of material.

One of the returning lettermen from last year's college team is Carl Streufert of St. Paul, who is again playing guard with the Comet five. Carl is a fast and levelheaded ball player, and so far this season has played very good ball.

Comets Defeat Alumni, 40-35

In a fast moving game played Saturday night on the Concordia floor, Dick Siebert's quint rolled over the Concordia alumni of St. Louis, Mo., by a score of 40-35.

Led by Herk Hinrichs, who scored twenty points, the Comets kept a small lead throughout the game. Leading the alumni was Norm Hannemann with six field goals and three free throws.

All proceeds of the game were donated to the Community Chest, including the officials' fees.

Comets Trip Mac, 50-34

Shorty!

Duane "Shorty" Frovold, the star guard of the High School Quintet, is showing real fight in every game. The fast-moving elusive Shorty is an accurate long shot artist and very apt in handling the ball.

Taking an early lead in the game last Tuesday at the Mac floor, Dick Siebert's basketball five rolled over the Macalester quint by a score of 50-34.

Paced by Herk Hinrichs, who ran up a total of 21 points, the Comets kept a small lead almost the entire game. Second high scorer was Streufert with 10, followed closely by Mesenbring with 9 and Haertel with 6.

Leading the Macs was Johnny Lundberg with 22 tallies.

Notice!

Don't fail to attend the coming struggle between the Comets and Falcons on the Hamline College floor on Dec. 21st. Tickets will be available from any of the Twin City Walther Leaguers, or from the student representatives. There are 1800 seats in the Hamline Fieldhouse, so there will be plenty of room for all.

We'll be seeing you then, and don't forget to come to the reception at the Concordia College dining hall after the game.
