

October Horrorscopes

BY ANNA FRITZE

PISCES
(FEB. 20–MAR. 20)

It's great that you're selfless, but don't give up too much of your candy this year. With how your relationship is going, you might need it later...

VIRGO
(AUG. 22–SEP. 23)

Okay, I know I already told Cancer to settle down, but seriously Virgo, settle down. These Zoom people (because your party is COVID-friendly) may be stressing you out, but you really need to take a deep breath. Focus instead on the weird Zoom murder-mystery game that's going on; you know that this is your time to shine. Go get em!

ARIES
(MAR. 21–APR. 20)

Yes, Halloween is an excuse to have fun, but maybe take a couple steps back ahead of time this year. We all know you think you deserve all the candy, but seriously, chill out. No need to repeat the wig swap fiasco of 2019. Instead, use your confidence to show off that bangin' clown costume... wait, clown, that's what you went with? Um...

LIBRA
(SEP. 24–OCT. 23)

Stop flirting with the cute Zoom ghoul to distract yourself from the nightmares you've been having lately. Yeah, they probably do mean something bad's going to happen to you; sorry (insert shrugging emoji here).

TAURUS
(APR. 21–MAY 21)

We get it, you're upset that your best friend's costume is way cooler than yours. Not our fault you agreed to go as a basic angel and devil; obviously their angel wings were going to steal the show. Instead, take a deep breath and enjoy the (COVID-friendly) night, or you'll regret it (cue creepy organ music).

SCORPIO
(OCT. 24–NOV. 22)

Happy Spooky Scorpio Season! Make sure to steer clear of churches, chapels, priests, pastors, nuns, monks, crosses, holy water, and the like. Hang out with a black cat under a full moon in a graveyard tonight for the best of luck this month. You're not superstitious, but... you're "a little stitious."

GEMINI
(MAY 22–JUN. 21)

Chill OUT, that horror movie wasn't real. Well, it might have been based on true events but... you know Hollywood, they dramatize everything. Get your mind off of that faceless lady by taking some time for what you deserve. Relax and overindulge for once; you won't regret it.

SAGITTARIUS
(NOV. 23–DEC. 22)

You're excited for Halloween, we get it! It sort of seems like everything excites you, settle down a little. Not all the way though, you still gotta get that bread (well, candy, in a COVID-friendly way). And no, while you think you're doing them a favor, it's not a good idea to be brutally honest about how creepy your BFF's Richard Simmons costume is. I never knew his forehead could look so large...

CANCER
(JUN. 22–JUL. 22)

You've got some high emotional intelligence up there, so be careful not to overanalyze Coraline and compare it to your life too closely. Just settle down and share the love (in a COVID-friendly way) and help your friends out with whatever they're going through (we both know they need it).

CAPRICORN
(DEC. 23–JAN. 20)

Let go of that grudge you've been holding on to. Seriously, that person doesn't care about you, so it's kind of pathetic that you still care so much about them. Instead, focus on your Halloween candy and costume (COVID-friendly) goals to live this holiday to the fullest.

LEO
(JUL. 23–AUG. 21)

Have you ever seen Oculus? Well, take it as a warning. Stop looking at yourself in the mirror so much and try to enjoy the people around you. Tap into your creative side and carve a pumpkin or something before you end up with an axe in your head (a theoretical axe that represents your ego getting the best of you... I hope).

AQUARIUS
(JAN. 21–FEB. 19)

You've been planning your costume for weeks, haven't you? Months? Years? Kidding, kidding, but cool costume bro. Sorry your party has to be COVID-friendly, but I'm sure you'll find a way to show off all eight custom-made suction cup tentacles of your octopus costume at once.
