Dear students, faculty, and Concordia community members,

Can we all agree that winter just needs to be over already? Good, moving on. I have heard many responses to the last issue (Special Edition on Human Sexuality) with my own ears, but unfortunately we did not receive any written responses. Hopefully that is a sign that we did our job well.

However, I did get a few emails asking what the difference between civil unions and marriage is. To clarify any questions you may have about the two, we have written an article on the adjoining page. Please feel free to send any other questions you may have about the sexuality discussion to sword@csp.edu or my personal email at loobeek@csp.edu.

On a completely separate note, The Sword is starting a Concordia Twitter picture campaign! Do you have some good pictures of you and your friends hanging out on campus? Snapped a pic of the albino squirrel lately? Tweet them at @CSP-theSword and your pictures could be featured in the next issue of The Sword!

Happy St. Patty's Day and may the Irish luck be ever in your favor!

Kristi Loobeek
Editor in Chief, The Sword

THIS PAPER IS A STUDENT PUBLICATION NOT AN OFFICIAL CONCORDIA PUBLICATION AND THE VIEWS EXPRESSED ARE NOT NECESSARILY THAT OF THE UNIVERSITY, BUT OF THE WRITERS AND STAFF INVOLVED IN THE PUBLICATION.
